Keeping children safe at 3C

If you're a parent, please make sure your children don't go out of the front door unless accompanied by an adult.

It's a particularly dangerous pedestrian exit, with no pavement on the 3C side of Church Road.

To help keep children safe, this exit will now be locked at 12 o'clock following each Sunday morning service. Please leave by the door leading to the car park. (If you need the Church Road door to be unlocked for any reason, please speak to a member of the Welcome Team.)

Help Needed

One more person is needed to serve coffee and tea on Sunday mornings just once a month. If you can help, please contact Karen Peers

- Contributions for next week's newsletter should be sent to Paul Herbert by 5pm on Wednesday
- Back copies of the newsletter are available on request from the Welcome Team or can be downloaded from the website
- Contact Paul on 01453 842260 or familyvonherbert@googlemail.com

Local Hero! William Tyndale drama comes to 3C this month

Please think and pray about who you are going to invite to His Word, the professional drama about local hero William Tyndale being hosted by 3C on Saturday 27th February at 7.30pm.

Tyndale translated the Bible into English so that ordinary people could read it. He grew up near Dursley, was hounded abroad by the English authorities and was eventually burned at the stake.

Advance Notice

July 2010

Thursday 15th to Sunday 18th	The Big Tent Event , run by 3C, in partnership with Dursley Festival	Dursley Rec
------------------------------	--	-------------

William Tyndale drama @ 3C on 27th February

The drama, His Word, is presented by Maranatha Productions, a non-profit ministry based in Pennsylvania, USA., and features three professional actors. The play was written and directed by Dan Neidermyer, the ministry's late executive producer. It tells the story of Tyndale's struggle in the 1500s to translate the Scriptures against the power of King Henry VIII, Cardinal Wolsey and the Pope.

Tyndale was both a great Christian martyr and a linguist of genius. When the famous Authorised Version of the Bible was published under King James 75 years after Tyndale's death, 90% of the wording was in fact his. Phrases such as 'flowing with milk and honey', 'to fall by the sword', 'the powers that be' and 'the apple of his eye' are all Tyndale's.

This will be a free event – perfect for friends who are interested in history and the local area.

For more info, check out 3C's press release for this event on www.3Ccommunitychurch.org

The Big Tent Event – keep it free!

If you are part of 3C and are planning your holidays for this summer, if possible please avoid going away from Thursday 15th July to Sunday 18th July, when 3C will be running The Big Tent Event, in partnership with Dursley Festival. If you can book some time off work to help out during this period, that would be even better! The tent will be put up on Wednesday 14th July and taken down on Monday 19th July, so help on those days will also be very useful.

Community Groups @ 3C

If you are part of 3C and do not yet belong to a community group, now's the time to join! Community groups in many ways represent the life of the church, offering care, friendship, prayer and opportunities to reach out to friends and neighbours.

Each group is different: some like to hold Bible studies; some prefer to spend time praying or holding social events together. Some have lots of children and some have none. Most groups usually meet on weekday evenings, although some may also get together at weekends.

Existing groups

Not sure which group to join? Take time to speak to the community group leaders and perhaps some of the members near you. You can join any group you want, regardless of where you live.

The existing leaders and groups are:

• Paul & Jan Herbert	Wotton under Edge	Tel: 01453 842260
• Greg & Nic Steer	Gloucester	Tel: 07909 612780 (Nic)
• Tim & Tracy Fletcher
• Beryl Gleich	Cam Green	Tel: 01453 546928
• Ed & Sue Humphreys	Cambridge	Tel: 01453 890474

New groups

Steve & Karen Peers, who live in Cam, are leading a new group, which will meet on Wednesdays – 01453 542732. In Dursley, Dave and Tina Ebbs will also lead a new group, which is intended for those following an Alpha course – 01453 548891

Please make your choice soon!

Glory Unveiled - local women's conference

As promised at the recent Vision Night and Refined women's day, Kyle has identified a suitable women's conference not too far from home. The 2010 Bristol Women's Conference, entitled Glory Unveiled, takes place on Saturday 6th March at Kensington Baptist Church, Bristol, BS5 0NX (www.bristolwomensconference.org). Jan and Coral believe this is an ideal opportunity to build on the work done so far within 3C's women's ministry.

The main speaker, Susie Leafe, will speak on living a spirit-filled life, teaching from 2 Corinthians. There is also a choice of seminars, covering topics including: Recognising God's Blueprint for my Life; Finding Jesus in Isaiah; How to support my husband; and Building inter-generational relationships between women. The day runs from 9.15am to 4.15pm. Cost £10 per person.

Contact Jan Herbert for more information, including transport arrangements and saving money on the booking fee.
